Irwin Named MDIT Client Services Director

Lansing – Michigan Department of Information Technology (MDIT) Director Teri Takai is pleased to announce the selection of Jeanne Irwin as Client Services Director serving the Departments of Corrections and the Attorney General. Irwin begins her new position immediately.

As Client Services Director, Irwin will be responsible for supporting the IT environment of the two client agencies. She will be MDIT's primary point of contact for the client agency in regards to service delivery. She will assist in the development of major IT projects, playing an intermediary role to help MDIT staff understand the business needs of the Departments of Corrections and the Attorney General.

Irwin previously worked for MDIT as the development manager serving the Departments of Corrections and the Attorney General. She has also worked as a Database and Web Manager for the Department of Corrections. She holds a degree in Data Processing.

Jeanne Irwin is married to Mike Irwin and they have two children, Michael and Matthew. They reside in Lansing.
